

POETRY.

ORIGINAL.

TO HER FOR WHOM IT IS MEANT.

Lady—as here beneath a foreign sky,
At duty's call companionless I rove,
Severing each holy tie of home and love,
Too oft my bosom struggles with a sigh—
What language shall pourtray the joy I prove,
When kindly sympathy like thine is nigh,
Soothing the Exile's heart with words of cheer,
Until it half forgets home is not here?
Poor thanks are mine—but blest with prayers that
Heaven
Should e'er afflictions clouds around thee lower
Repay the shelter and the solace given,
And prove thy refuge in the darkest hour;
That earthly storms but wait thee to that shore
Where sorrow has no place—and friends shall part no more. J. P. C.
